

THE ROLES OF THE NEWS MEDIA IN THE GOVERNANCE AGENDA:

WATCH-DOGS, AGENDA-SETTERS, AND GATE-KEEPERS

PIPPA NORRIS (EDITOR)

REPORT PUBLISHED BY COMM GAP, THE WORLD BANK, WASHINGTON DC, SPRING 2009

Proposed Contents

List of tables and figures

About the contributors

Preface and acknowledgments

Part I: Introduction: Framing the debate about the roles of the news media

Chapter 1: The ideal role of the news media in the public sphere - Pippa Norris and Sina Odugbemi

Chapter 2: Diagnostic tools and performance indicators - Andrew Puddenphatt

Part II: The roles of the news media as watch-dogs, agenda-setters and gate-keepers

Chapter 3: State responsiveness to natural crisis and disasters - Susan Mueller

Chapter 4: Donor responsiveness to humanitarian crisis and development aid - Douglas A. van Belle

Chapter 5: Corruption and the watchdog role of the mass media - Sheila Coronel

Chapter 6: Government performance, collective accountability, and the news media - Katrin Voltmer

Chapter 7: The structure and functions of the broadcasting industry as a public forum- Marius Dragomir

Chapter 8: Election campaigns, balance, and the mass media - Holli Semetko

Chapter 9: Limits on press freedom and regime support – Pippa Norris and Ronald Inglehart

Chapter 10: Post-conflict reconstruction/fragile states and the mass media - Monroe Price and Ibrahim al Marashi

Part III: Case-studies of the roles of the news media as watch-dogs, agenda-setters and gate-keepers

Chapter 11: The roles of the news media in Sub-Saharan Africa- Wisdom Tettey

Chapter 12: The roles of the news media in Latin America- Silvio Waisbord

Chapter 13: The roles of the news media in Arab States - Lawrence Pintak

Part IV: Conclusions: Policy options and recommendations

Chapter 14: Policy options strengthening the roles of journalists as watch-dogs, agenda-setters and gate-keepers- Sina Odugbemi and Pippa Norris

Technical appendix and tables

Select bibliography

Endnotes

Index