

Application

Doctoral Fellow selection
for Academic Year 2009-2010

Eligibility

Harvard Ph.D. students who will be entering their second or third (G-2 or G-3) years of graduate study in September 2009 are eligible to apply.

The Harvard Multidisciplinary Program in Inequality & Social Policy is principally designed for Harvard Ph.D. students in Economics, Government, Political Economy & Government, Public Policy, Sociology, and Social Policy. Students from other Harvard Ph.D. programs with an appropriate background in a related social science discipline are also welcome to apply so long as their program confers the Ph.D. (i.e., Doctor of Philosophy).

What the Multidisciplinary Program in Inequality & Social Policy is about

Please be sure to obtain the companion Inequality & Social Policy Doctoral Fellow program brochure. If the informational brochure did not accompany this application, it may be obtained from the web: www.hks.harvard.edu/inequality

Application requires the following items

- Application form (4 pages) + research statement
- Curriculum Vitae (2-page max)
- Two faculty letters of recommendation (see website for waiver form).
Faculty members are encouraged to e-mail their letters directly to pamela_metz@harvard.edu
- PLUS official Harvard graduate transcript

Students may submit their portion of the application as email attachments OR in hardcopy form:

Email: inequality@harvard.edu

Or in hardcopy form:

Items should be assembled in order listed above (please do NOT staple) and directed to:

Pamela L. Metz
Multidisciplinary Program in Inequality & Social Policy
Harvard Kennedy School
79 JFK Street, Taubman 402 (Box 103)
Cambridge, MA 02138

Application deadline

Applications must be received by noon on Friday, June 19, 2009.

For further information:

Contact the program office (617-496-0109) or e-mail inequality@harvard.edu. Additional application forms and information may be obtained from the web: www.hks.harvard.edu/inequality