John Dunlop Undergraduate Thesis Prize in Business and Government

The John Dunlop Thesis Prize in Business and Government is an annual award for Harvard undergraduates, provided by the Mossavar-Rahmani Center for Business & Government at the Kennedy School. A $1000 award.

Established in 2007, the award is given to the Harvard College graduating senior who writes the best thesis on a challenging public policy issue at the interface of business and government. Papers which examine the business-government interface with respect to regulation, corporate responsibility, energy, the environment, health care, education, technology and human rights are particularly encouraged, however papers on other topics will also be considered.

APPLICATION FORM

Name: _______________________________________________________
Permanent address:_____________________________________________________________________________________
Campus address:_____________________________________________________________________________________
Email: ___________________________________ Telephone: ______________________________
Major: _________________________ Harvard ID: ______________________
Thesis Readers (if more than one) __________________________________________
Reader Contact Information: ____________________________
Reader Contact Information: ____________________________
Reader Contact Information: ____________________________

Please Attach: (no electronic copies will be accepted) 1) resume 2) copy of thesis 3) copy of all your readers’ comments

Deadline: Wednesday, May 8, 2019 at noon

Application materials should be delivered to:
Scott Leland
Mossavar-Rahmani Center for Business & Government
Kennedy School of Government, Box 83
79 JFK Street, Cambridge, MA 02138
(or in person at office 502, Belfer Building, Kennedy School)

The winner will be announced on the M-RCBG website no later than May 27, 2018.
http://www.hks.harvard.edu.centers/mrcbg/students/dunlop2

Please note: The winner will be asked to provide an electronic copy of the thesis for posting to the Center’s website.