

The International Science & Health Network,
Harvard Integrated Life Sciences, Harvard Initiative for Global Health &
Center for International Development
Present

THE IMPACT OF THE GLOBAL WATER CRISIS ON HEALTH & HUMAN DEVELOPMENT

FRIDAY, MAY 11, 2007

1:00pm – 5:00pm

Snyder Auditorium, Harvard School of Public Health

Featuring distinguished speakers from: World Bank, CDC, Droga5, Emory University, MIT, Oxfam America, and the San Juan del Sur project

Topics include:

Novel water purification technology
Water quality and sanitation in Latin America
Water supply during disaster management
Control of waterborne infectious disease
Raising public awareness

WINE AND CHEESE RECEPTION TO FOLLOW

RSVP to watersymposium2007@gmail.com

Harvard Integrated Life Sciences ■ HILS

The GRADUATE SCHOOL of ARTS AND SCIENCES

Harvard University

Holvoete Center 350 • 1350 Massachusetts Avenue
Cambridge, Massachusetts 02138-3946

Center for International Development
at Harvard University

